Come along on a three day outing to the "Live Music Capital of the World" with Kincaid Tours and King Country KKNK's Lynn Waggoner. You can count on hearing great music and having an extraordinary time. The lodging will be provided by the Welk Resort.

April 23. You will be transported to Branson in comfort aboard one Kincaid Coach Lines, Inc. luxury motor coaches and will arrive in time to enjoy an included dinner at the Andy Williams Moon River Grill. Dinner will be a special occasion celebrating the birthday of William Shakespeare. With appetites satiated, the group moves on to the Clay Cooper Theatre for the Neal McCoy Show. A country music superstar, Neal brings his signature blend of honky tonkin', boot scootin' music to the Branson stage. No doubt about it, Neal McCoy is a one-of-a-kind country singer and the consummate live performer. (D)

April 24. The day's activities get underway with an included breakfast at the hotel before the coach transports the group to Silver Dollar City to experience World-Fest. This is America's largest international festival and presents incredible crafts, food and entertainment from around the globe, featuring performers from six continents. The visit includes a lunch voucher for your convenience. Then this evening enjoy an included dinner buffet. Sit back and be ready to be entertained with the Country Tonight Show featuring guest star, Marty Haggard. Country Tonight will present some of the greatest hits in country music with their outstanding singers and the Country Tonight Band. Then Marty Haggard takes the stage for a rousing tribute to his Dad, the legendary Merle Haggard. Marty will be singing all of the Merle Haggard classics along with his own songs for an evening you won't forget. (B) (L) (D)

April 25. The coach will head back to Oklahoma after the included breakfast at the hotel. (B)

Reserve early and be a part of the outing to Branson with King Country's Lynn Waggoner and Kincaid Tours.
